

Public International Law

Lexpat Global Services has extensive experience in public international law. We represent clients before international courts, tribunals, and regulatory bodies.

Our team of attorneys have lived around the world and worked in a wide variety of international organizations, government agencies, and branches of military service.

We have the knowledge to help address complex disputes in a wide variety of jurisdictions.

Our Approach

Our multidisciplinary team includes international lawyers, licensed arbitrators, mediators, and investigators who can handle any type of matter.

- ✓ Proven Global Expertise
- ✓ Client-Centered Approach
- ✓ Track Record of Success
- ✓ Multidisciplinary Strength
- ✓ Credibility and Integrity

Core Competencies

International Litigation

Representation before the International Court of Justice, international criminal tribunals, human rights courts, and specialized employment tribunals

Corporate Supply Chain Compliance

Advisory services on global supply chain integrity and compliance, helping clients mitigate legal and reputational risks

Policy Engagement and Advocacy

Shaping accountability frameworks and influencing policy through expert engagement with UN bodies, regional organizations, and governments

Investigations

Expertise in conducting complex, sensitive investigations, including working with law enforcement/security services, vulnerable witnesses and advanced digital evidence

International Arbitration

Licensed arbitrators and mediators with experience managing diverse disputes across sectors and jurisdictions

Sanctions

Deep experience with sanctions enforcement, OFAC licensing, and compliance guidance from both government and private-sector perspectives